

uhcl
THE SIGNAL

THIS WEEK IN NEWS

NEWS FOR THE WEEKS OF MARCH 9 - 29, 2019

NEWS & FEATURE

Supreme Court decision restricts power of law enforcement to seize money and property

Throughout its existence, the Supreme Court has ruled that most sections of the Bill of Rights apply to the state governments. However, that did not include the Eighth Amendment until last month. Read Article

Professor Huss-Keeler hopes to create change as a representative on the Texas Early Learning Council

UHCL's first SGA Senate reflects on year of advocacy for student body

The Student Government Association (SGA) at UHCL introduced its first senate in October 2018. Prior to this, SGA officials consisted of a small executive council. What exactly does the addition of the senate change?

Read Article

Smartphone screens: Impact on one's psychology

In late 2018, smartphone manufacturers implemented software features allowing users to track their screen time. How can you use this data to manage your relationship with technology? Read Article

Critical conversation explores movement and migration of African-Americans

OPINIONS

EDITORIAL: Silent removal of bulletin boards disregards student input

The lack of bulletin spaces creates a cold and unfeeling environment, as though the university lacks students who want to be there, but instead, has students who have to be there. Read Article

Blurred lines: Healthy body image in the era of photo filters

It's natural for people to assume the airbrushed and flawless photos on advertisements have been digitally manipulated, but what about pictures on their social media feeds? The constant barrage of filtered photos on social media has the potential to lead to an unhealthy body image and a cycle of destructive self-comparison. Read Article

Netflix surpasses cable for TV viewers

REVIEW: TUTS wows Houston audience with adaptation of 'Mamma Mia'

SATIRE

Congress finally repeals Obamacare, replaces it with loot-box based healthcare system

No longer do we have to shell out our own hard earned dollars because someone else decided to get into an accident. It's just like Jesus said, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Unless, of course, they can saveth a buck or two by not doing any of that, in which case, I shalt looketh the other wayeth."

Read Article

Ready To Learn More About Your New Healthcare System?

Step 1: Enroll online!

*Note: enrollment costs $600

Step 2: Roll to receive appointment time!

*Note: Additional payment required to select exact time

Bronze ETA: 1 Year Silver ETA: 1 Month Gold ETA: 1 Week Platinum You Decide!

Step 3: Roll to see what kind of doctor you get!

*Note: More serious doctors are more rare

For more information please see Lootbox.gov or call 1-800-667-7333

Research Provided By: ETHOS ASSOCIATION

MULTIMEDIA

TIMELINE: The unexpectedly long life of the Mars rover 'Opportunity'

Opportunity was a rover created by NASA as a part of their Mars Exploration Rover program. The mission was expected to last 90 days; however, Opportunity lasted 55 times longer than its expected duration and made some amazing discoveries along the way. See Timeline

INFOGRAPHIC: 6 techniques to help with de-stressing

LIST: A glimpse at UHCL professors' published books

In addition to teaching, professors are also expected to publish and/or exhibit their research. The UHCL's Neumann Library has a cabinet located by the main entrance that contains numerous books written by current professors of the university. See List

MAP: Unique late-night dining for UHCL community

UHCL students, their professors and staff work long, hard hours on campus, often not leaving until after most restaurants close. There are many fast food options available at those late hours, but what about some less well-known sit-down options? The following is a curated list of some local restaurants and small chains open late within 30 minutes of campus. Bon appetit! See Map

INFOGRAPHIC: Unethical fashion practices shoppers should know