

CAMPUS NEWS

Faculty evaluation system at UH sparks student interest at UHCL

Every semester, college students are faced with the task of choosing the classes and professors they wish to take. Many students use websites such as RateMyProfessor.com to learn what they can about professors before enrolling in courses. However, some universities, like the University of Houston, offer a different option to solving such curiosity. Read Article

Investiture week to lead up to ceremony in honor of President Blake's first year in office

UHCL opens two new buildings in time for fall 2018 semester

FEATURES

Q&A: UHCL graduate student shares story of opening publishing house with fellow Hawks

UHCL graduate student and teaching assistant in the department of liberal arts, Chandler Barton who graduated with a degree in literature and music, used his passion for writing to open his own business for local authors to publish their work. Read Article

Film and Speaker Series' fall lineup brings summer box office hits to campus

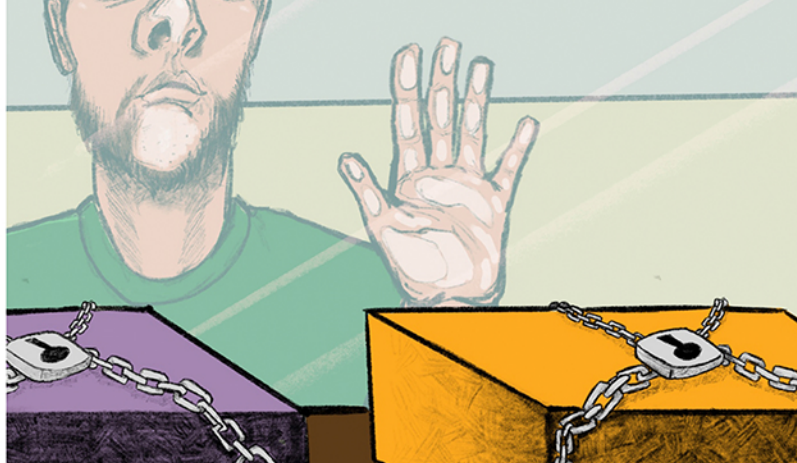

UHCL's Film and Speaker Series is back in full swing for the fall semester. The first film, "Won't You Be My Neighbor", shown Sept. 8, was described as "an intimate look at America's favorite neighbor: Mister Fred Rogers" on the Film and Speaker Series website. Read Article

Q&A: International student Katherine Rodriguez talks limitations, goals and Facebook scholarship

Katherine Rodriguez, digital media studies graduate student and audience engagement editor of The Signal, was born and raised in Venezuela. Inspired by acts of censorship in her home country, Rodriguez has spent the past few years in the United States pursuing an education in the communications field. Read Article

OPINIONS

EDITORIAL: Course evaluation results should be available to students

Students should know their voice matters by seeing course/professor evaluation results. Read Article

REVIEW: 'The Purge' television series brings popular movie franchise to USA Network

BLOGS

Student organization involvement teaches invaluable lessons in leadership

Student organizations are about having fun with a group of people with similar interests to you while learning at the same time. Read Article

Internships provide students with opportunity to gain experience

An internship is a defining moment for students to show their skills and gain experience for future careers. Read Article

Here's how you can get paid to watch football on Friday nights

Have you ever actually sat down and contemplated what your entry into the world of writing and journalism might look like? Well, as someone who is obsessed with planning ahead and working out the details of every possible outcome, I wish to share with you my story. Read Article

MULTIMEDIA

Missed MoJo: 8 live coverage stories within the past year

MoJo is The Signal's term for "Mobile Journalism" and is found across our official Twitter and Instagram accounts. Here are eight live covered stories by The Signal you may have missed this past year. Read Article

CONTEST: The Signal hosts Fantasy Movie League

INFOGRAPHIC: Free services available to students at Campus Recreation and Wellness Center

TIMELINE: UHCL tobacco-free policy, from lighting up to burning out

UHCL building structures aren't the only adjustments being made to the campus. The smoking policy has also evolved to keep up to modern standards. Read Article

Question of the Week:

How do you feel about UHCL being a tobacco-free campus? Why do you support or oppose it?

Answer Here

VIDEOS

UHCL Art Gallery reopens after renovations with Jonathan McFadden exhibit

UHCL Bayou Theater undergoes renovations

Students Org Expo fall 2018 introduces Hawks to ways to get involved on campus

People of UHCL

YOUR VOICE

The Signal's People of UHCL initiative is aimed toward featuring various students, faculty and staff. Everyone has a story. What's yours? Fill out the questionnaire to be featured on the website and let Your Voice be heard on Your Signal!

Questionnaire