

uhcl
THE SIGNAL

THIS WEEK IN NEWS

NEWS FOR THE WEEKS OF OCT. 26 - NOV. 1, 2018

NEWS

Bendeck, Berberich propose consistent scheduling for freshmen, sophomores

On Oct. 2, Yvette Bendeck, associate vice president of enrollment management, presented a new "scheduling proposal" at a Student Government Association meeting alongside Steven Berberich, senior vice president for academic affairs and provost.

Read Article

UHCL PD's relocation raises concerns of response time, campus presence

The UHCL Police Department moved its office across the street from the Bayou Building during the summer. Although this move is seen as a necessity by the university to facilitate the police department's growth, it has brought mixed reviews.

Read Article

Question of the Week:

Do you have concerns about police presence on campus?

Eric Herrera steps into Associate Vice President for Facilities Management and Construction position

FEATURES

Q&A: Natalie Garcia to play Mother Nature in original production 'HE(A)R'

This solo performance will take place in the Bayou Building, in the art gallery on tonight. Garcia takes on the character of Mother Nature to give the audience some "tough love" about our current environmental issues under the lens of feminism.

Read Article

Q&A: Country singer-songwriter John King to perform in Houston for the first time at Bayou Theater

Rising country star John King is set to perform his latest single "Heat Wave" and more at the Bayou Theater Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. The singer-songwriter, who signed with Sony/ATV Nashville Publishing in April, saw his debut radio single "Tonight Tonight" not only chart on the Top 40 in 2014, but also be used during CBS' "Thursday Night Football."

Read Article

CONTEST: Win a pair of tickets to John King concert

The Signal is giving away two pairs of tickets to the concert taking place at the Bayou Theater.

How to enter

Cruise into the holidays at the 38th annual Nutcracker Market

OPINIONS

COMMENTARY: Why LGBT Pride and History Months matter in an evolving society

This can only mean one thing, and that is the LGBTQ+ community is being further accepted by society. Although, the recent spotlight of queer culture has been an informative introduction; more recognition is needed for continued education until all aspects of the community feel included.

Read Article

COLUMN: The many ways a keto diet can benefit the body

Americans have a hard time understanding how a high-fat eating plan is healthy, but in fact a large amount of healthy fats combined with few carbs benefits the brain, can cure diseases, cause weight-loss and dictate how the body produces energy.

Read Article

REVIEW: 'Bohemian Rhapsody' brings the real life of Queen's Freddie Mercury to the silver screen

Director Bryan Singer's film "Bohemian Rhapsody" is as inspirational as it is heartbreaking. The film focuses on the aspects of the early life and development of the band Queen, lead singer Freddie Mercury's struggles with sexual identity, and the strains of fame on his relationships at home and in the band.

Read Article

SPORTS

NEWS: Campus Rec and Wellness Center equipped to offer new intramural sports

In August 2018, UHCL's new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center opened. This new building provides exercise equipment, various other amenities and has been useful in encouraging students to join assorted intramural sports teams around campus.

Read Article

SPORTS TALK PODCAST: Urban Meyer, Serena Williams and Bill Belichick book

On this edition of Sports Talk, panelists discuss with moderator Joe Riley the Urban Meyer controversy at Ohio State, the confrontation between Serena Williams and the chair umpire at the U.S. Open, a book detailing Bill Belichick's life and more.

Listen Here

BLOGS:

Clutch City: A look back at the NBA's most under-appreciated champion

Meyer controversy highlights character issues in sports

MULTIMEDIA

INTERACTIVE INFOGRAPHIC: History and traditions of Dia de los Muertos

Dia de los Muertos, or the Day of the Dead, is a holiday celebrated in Mexico and those of Mexican heritage from Oct. 31 to Nov. 2. To learn more about the history and traditions of Dia de los Muertos, check out this graphic.

Interact with Graphic

MAP: Upcoming events in Houston to do this November

VIDEO: Hawks suggest names for future residence hall

GALLERY: Texas Clay Festival draws crowds to historic Greune district

For the 26th year in a row, the historical district of Greune, in New Braunfels, hosted the Texas Clay Festival on Oct. 27-28. This juried show featured the work of over 80 artists from across Texas and four tents holding demos for guest.

View Photos

<http://uhclthesignal.com>

PODCASTS

Midterm Elections 2018

Signal Soundbytes, a podcast produced by the University of Houston-Clear Lake's The Signal, features a panel of students discussing a variety of topics. Episode includes discussion of the 2018 midterm elections.

Listen Here

'Venom,' Midterm Elections and The Signal's Fantasy Movie League!

This episode covers "Venom," how to "Adult with the Signal" and the competitive nature of The Signal's Fantasy Movie League. Each guest gives a pitch to a movie, album or tv show they loved or are looking forward to during the "PopCast Radar."

Listen Here