

uhcl
THE SIGNAL

THIS WEEK IN NEWS

NEWS FOR THE WEEKS OF NOV. 16 - 21, 2018

THANKSGIVING

YOUR VOICE: Thanksgiving traditions from our Hawks' eyes

Thanksgiving is around the corner. The Signal went around campus and asked the UHCL community about their Thanksgiving traditions. Write your own Thanksgiving traditions in the comments below. Read Article

VIDEO: 3 easy Thanksgiving dessert recipes

GALLERY: Houston's Thanksgiving Day Parade over the years

MAP: Winter 2018 holiday lights around Houston

INFOGRAPHIC: How to avoid talking politics during the holidays

VETERAN SERVICES

Hawks express concerns over state of UHCL's VSO at town hall

YOUR VOICE: Recognizing veterans of the UHCL community

RESULTS: How important are veteran services at UHCL?

UHCL administrative staff met with concerned students Nov. 5 at the Bayou Theater for a town hall meeting to discuss the current state and future of the Captain Wendell Wilson Veteran's Services Office.

Read Article

EDITORIAL: Delayed hiring of VSO leadership hinders veteran students' educational journey

It has been four months since Ruiz left the VSO and one month since Hernandez left. The positions for director and coordinator of VSO have still not been posted to the careers page of the UHCL website.

Read Article

NEWS

From print to digital: Online course evaluations becoming new standard

UHCL has been slowly transitioning to digital course evaluations. This fall semester that transition moves one step forward as the College of Human Sciences and Humanities implements digital course evaluations for face-to-face classes. Read Article

News Roundup: Oct. 16 - 31

STORY: The 2018 midterm elections in hindsight

FEATURES

UHCL announces its Minnie Piper Award nominee

Every year at UHCL, a prestigious award is given to one distinguished professor nominated by students and peers. Wanalee Romero, lecturer of literature, has won this year's 2018-2019 Minnie Stevens Piper professor nomination to represent UHCL for the state-wide award. Read Article

OPINIONS

COMMENTARY: Interracial relationships choose acceptance over intolerance

Although it is the year 2018, there are still major controversies about certain romantic partnerships. Interracial relationships are one of them. Some individuals despise a diverse relationship as much as walking in wet socks. Read Article

REVIEW: Ed Sheeran brings a 'perfect' performance to Houston

LETTER: Misguided spending

PODCAST

Midterm election results, UHCL online courses and Quick Take

Signal Soundbytes, a podcast produced by the University of Houston-Clear Lake's The Signal, features a panel of students discussing a variety of topics. Listen Here