

uhcl
THE SIGNAL

THIS WEEK IN NEWS

NEWS FOR THE WEEKS OF DECEMBER 27, 2018 - JANUARY 25, 2019

MOST FASCINATING PEOPLE OF 2018

The Signal has compiled a list of the 10 most fascinating people of UHCL of 2018. The selections were based on the honoree's impact on the UHCL community, notable achievements and overall inspirational quality. Read Article

Q&A: Deysi Crespo

Q&A: Antonio Arellano

[Q&A: Empower:
Women's Leadership](#)

[Q&A: Campus
Recreation and Wellness](#)

Q&A: Erica Solis

Social Work major Erica Solis is one of 10 featured on The Signal's 10 Most Fascinating People of UHCL of 2018 list. Read Interview

NEWS

News roundup: Jan. 1 - 16

With all eyes on Pelosi, Trump and McConnell over the government shutdown, you may have missed some important state, national and international news. Here are 10 of those stories, told with photos. Read Article

News roundup: December 2018

OPINIONS

REVIEW: Emerging pop artist Carlie Hanson makes stop in Houston

Indie-pop American artist, Carlie Hanson, made her final stop as an opener for rapper and record producer Gnash in Houston Jan. 6. Hanson, an 18-year-old singer and songwriter from rural Wisconsin brought her melody and catchy jams to House of Blues Houston. Read Article

REVIEW: Hopdoddy franchise brings top-notch burgers to Clear Lake area

REVIEW: Heartwarming and hilarious, 'The Book of Mormon' humors Houston

The characters, songs and settings of "The Book of Mormon" reflect on religion and humanity with hilariously heartwarming, over-the-top irrevocably "South Park"-esque style. This comes as no surprise, as "South Park" creators Trey Parker and Matt Smith sit at the helm of this production. Read Article

BLOGS

Best of winter break: Mariachi queens, Spider-Verse and more

All female mariachis, "Shrek Retold" and the process of finding what magic should "sound like" - these are some gems I found across the internet. Read Article

Recap of 2018: The best in sports

As 2018 draws to a close, it's a great time to reflect on another year full of amazing moments in sports. Some celebrated a championship victory while others overcame tremendous odds. This year even served as a coming out party for some athletes. Read Article

YOUR VOICE

The Signal's People of UHCL initiative is aimed toward featuring various students, faculty and staff. Everyone has a story. What's yours? Fill out the questionnaire to be featured on the website and let Your Voice be heard on Your Signal!

Questionnaire