

uhcl
THE SIGNAL

THIS WEEK IN NEWS

NEWS FOR THE WEEKS OF JULY 30 - AUGUST 14, 2018

NEWS

Roundup: July 11 - Aug. 7

News Roundup: July 11 - Aug 7

Here are the top stories July 11 to Aug. 7 from Texas, the United States and around the world. Read Article

CAB tackles the heat with a splash

Hawk Launch helps incoming first-year students soar together

OPINIONS

EDITORIAL: Why open executive-level searches should always be conducted

Executive-level position holders possess the power and influence to shape not just the university, but also its community. Decisions regarding policy, procedures and processes impact students, faculty and staff. From smoking policies to new buildings to hiring processes, executives at UHCL can indirectly hinder or enhance one's experience at the university. Read Article

COMMENTARY: Yes, Kylie is self-made

Privilege does not negate a person's individual success. So, for all of the social media haters, sorry to tell you, but Kylie Jenner is a "self-made" woman. Read Article

STAFF PICKS: 2018 Primetime Emmy snubs

With the release of the 2018 Primetime Emmy nominations, The Signal staff was shocked to see some of their favorite contenders snubbed. Check out the list below to see who the staff thought should have made the cut. Read Article

FEATURE

Bidding adieu to Darlene Biggers, the UHCL student's advocate

Biggers has been at UHCL since 1994, and she is set to retire on Aug. 3 after 24 years at UHCL. In her time at the university, Biggers said that the main thing that drove her to continue in higher education was her love for the students. Read Article

Berberich begins provost position intent on learning of opportunities, challenges at UHCL

Berberich was selected to succeed A. Glen Houston as provost after a nationwide search that led to him being one of five finalists who visited the university to present on the topic of a "comprehensive university transforming into the future." Read Article

New executive director of Human Resources sees UHCL becoming influence in higher education

On June 5, President Ira Blake announced W. Brad McGonagle had accepted the position of executive director of Human Resources at the University of Houston-Clear Lake (UHCL) starting June 6. Read Article

LIFE AND ARTS

Q&A: UHCL alumnus aims to educate minorities through 'Political Power Tour'

There's only one way to define the University of Houston-Clear Lake alumnus Antonio Arellano; a young man with a dream and a desire to empower others. Read Article

Q&A: UHCL alumnus heads to International Cocktail Competition

Book delves into the life of 'Hollywood's Good Little Bad Girl' Bebe Daniels

PODCASTS

Minors in the media and No Comment

Signal Soundbytes, a podcast produced by the University of Houston-Clear Lake's The Signal, features a panel of students discussing a variety of topics. Episode segments include minors being covered by the media and a game called No Comment. Listen Here